DECLASSIFICATION AUTHORITY

1. The first part of the document is a header section containing the title "THE EFFECTS OF THE 1990S REFORMS ON THE ECONOMIC GROWTH OF CHINA" and the author's name "J. H. CHEN".

2. The second part is the abstract, which states: "This paper examines the effects of the 1990s reforms on the economic growth of China. The results show that the reforms have led to a significant increase in the rate of economic growth, particularly in the private sector. The government's role in the economy has been reduced, and the private sector has become the main driver of growth. The reforms have also led to a significant increase in the level of investment in infrastructure and human capital. The results suggest that the reforms have been successful in promoting economic growth and development in China."

3. The third part is the introduction, which discusses the background of the reforms and the objectives of the study.

4. The fourth part is the methodology, which describes the data sources and the econometric models used in the study.

5. The fifth part is the results, which presents the findings of the study.

6. The sixth part is the conclusion, which summarizes the main findings and provides some policy recommendations.

7. The seventh part is the references, which lists the sources used in the study.
